CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY
Lincoln, Nebr.

The cornerstone of present building was laid June 14, 1888.

A church costing $4,000.00 was erected on this site in 1870.

The present building is of Colorado Red sandstone, accommodating about 480, and cost about $40,000.

The first rector was Rev. Alexander Allen.

Bishop Worthington was Bishop of Nebraska at that time.

The Rev. John Hewett was rector at the first regular meeting in January 1889, held in the crypt and in the church proper December 1, 1889.
